

BRENDAN GALVIN

Brendan Galvin has been selected as the winner of the Liz Campanile Memorial Scholarship.

Mrs. Campanile was an educator for many years here in New Jersey. She would have been thrilled to have you as her student. Brendan is an extremely gifted individual who completed his high school education at Christian Brothers Academy at the head of his class. He is the eldest of the three children of Richard and Christina Galvin, of St Clair Avenue. His early education was in Germany where he attended German schools and then moved with his family to Los Angeles before coming to New Jersey.

Since his enrollment at Christian Brothers he has taken all honors and AP courses and excelled in all areas. Brendan has attained every academic honor that the Academy has to offer. He was voted to be the Epitome of the Academy. He is a member of the National Honor Society, the Spanish Honor Society and was awarded a merit scholarship in the name of Brother McKenna. In addition, he received the Brother Michael Dwyer F S C Scholar award. He is a true leader of his class and is held in high esteem by his peers. His academic achievements are too numerous to mention.

Brendan can also be considered a driven athlete. He has been a member of the varsity baseball team since 9th grade. At the moment Brendan is in Europe competing with European National Baseball Teams. What a wonderful opportunity for a gifted athlete. He is an excellent athlete and his love of baseball became part of a service project. He organized and ran a baseball equipment collection for Asbury Park. Brendan's love of baseball has drawn him to another program called Big Bro, Little Bro. He is working with a young child from a single parent family teaching him not only baseball but life skills. He engaged in many other extra-curricular activities including the Chess team, Math Team, Academic Team, Model UN and he was one of the founders of the Trail and Terrain Club. He's a very busy individual.

As fall approaches Brendan will pack his trunk and baseball equipment and head to Princeton, New Jersey to become a Princeton Tiger. He will major in History and International Relations. His plans include the Woodrow Wilson School of Public Policy and International Affairs.

Brendan, the Historical Society congratulates you and wishes you well as you begin your college experience at Princeton.

EF